With THANKS

Anne Pedley would like to thank everybody for the lovely flowers, prayers and good wishes following her recent surgery. Recovery is very slow, but getting there!!

Lynne Yarde would like to thank all those who helped with the Bring & Buy Sale and make it such a huge success. At the latest count over £600.00 was raised

Ros Crosland would like to thank everybody for the lovely flowers she was given recently. She says "...I didn't need a "thank-you" for doing Pews News, but the gift was really appreciated. I received them just a few days before what would have been my Mum's birthday so the timing was perfect. I have just started a Flower Photography course, and the beautiful colours are exactly what I need for my next assignment.

Thanks again. Ros..."

Church Screen

Following extensive research into the broken motors in the existing screen, it's days are numbered... The Italian manufacturer has not been able to source new motors; as a result we have had to order a new remote controlled screen which should be ready for installation by the end of May...

Church Chairs

As you will no doubt be aware, there are over 25 damaged church chairs currently stored at the back of the Church. It is our intention to re-cover these, and we have a number of swatches for people to look at in Wesleys after the service this morning.

Skill-base

The Church are looking for people who might be able to help with looking after the property; joiners / handy-men, painters etc,... Could you let either myself or one of the Property Stewards

Shop Local!

One of the big causes of damage to our grandchildren's planet is the amount of stuff being moved from one place to another. We can do something positive here. Shop local where we can. Have you tried the fish and egg vendors who come to the Malt Shovel car park on Fridays? Have you noticed how the Co-op shelves empty whenever it snows? Suddenly neighbours who normally buy their groceries from down the hill want to get them from the Village. Let's do more of it. Ideally we would like a local market, but for now we have two post offices, two Co-ops, two newsagents, many cafés, several restaurants, two butchers, any number of beauty parlours and a shoe repair shop, and lots of professional services available. Whenever you buy locally, more of that money stays here, our community grows stronger and more integrated, people get to know each other more, we use less fuel going to get stuff. So, next time you need stuff or professional advice, ask the question: "can I get it in Baildon?"

Biblefresh: There's just 3 weeks to go:

On Saturday June 11 there is a big Festival in Bradford, celebrating the Bible.

Why? Because it's 400 years since the Bible was published in English for all to read.

What's on?

- Thought-provoking WORDshops on: Godly Play; Story Telling; Workplace Bible; Bible listening; Creative writing; Picture thinking; Grasping the whole. Book your place now for the morning
- Story telling in Bradford central. Come and see the afternoon action in the public space.
- Gather in the Atrium for evening celebration with Adrian and Bridget Plass in the University Great Hall. John Froud will sing, and so shall we. Book your tickets now.

Get a leaflet and book your place, or go to <http://westyorkshiremethodist.org.uk/festival>

This is going to be something to remember
