

Our April GiFO is for The Immanuel Project ...providing meals, care, and support to the homeless and vulnerable people of Bradford

Remember Kate Beck's inspiring service on March 17th? She introduced us to The Immanuel Project which works at the former St Marys Catholic Church in central Bradford every Monday, offering breakfast and a hot lunch to anyone who walks through the doors, as well as a number of other services which can vary from week-to-week - these include hairdressing, a clothing bank, literacy teaching, beauty treatments and allied health services (such as chiropody). The project aims to show love and acceptance in sitting down to eat together. Envelopes for your donations will be available adjacent to both entrances to the church. You can place any donations in the collection plate any Sunday throughout the month. Please "Gift Aid" your donation if possible. Please place any filled envelopes in the church collection plate on

Gay's collection for Africa (CART Campaign for African Relief Trust, based in Huddersfield)

Following on from the successful appeal for candles, this fortnight Gay is appealing for any spare knitting yarns and/or knitting needles.

Any of the items requested fortnightly are needed continually and can be given direct to Gay or left in a labelled bag in the cloakroom at any time. Thank you

To the generous people of Bradford North Circuit!

I am running the Baildon Boundary Way Half Marathon next month and would very much appreciate it if you would sponsor me via my Virgin Money Giving page: <http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/JohnDarnbrook>. On that page you will find full details of this event, along with links to my previous fundraising. I'd like to continue increasing the amount I raise each year, for the fantastic work of Cancer Research UK. Please note that my company will DOUBLE the amount I raise, meaning an even greater boost to CRUK's great work. Many thanks John

A Date For Your Diary

Philip Picken, who from being a young boy has been part of the church family here at Baildon, is having a marriage blessing on Saturday 4th May at 12:00pm. Rev Graham Smith will be conducting the service. Philip is marrying Louise on the Saturday 6th April, in Ireland. However the couple were keen to have blessing here in Baildon to allow friends and family who were unable to make it to Ireland and the community here in Baildon to witness their marriage vows and add their prayers and good wishes to those already given in Ireland. There will be cake and coffee after the service in Wesleys.

It would be lovely to see you there

Sew together

I invite willing helpers to join me in Wesleys on Tuesday 16th April from 1:30pm to sew together 48 blanket squares, knitted by church friends for a patient at the Addis Ababa Obstetric Fistula Hospital, Ethiopia.

Sewing wool and needles will be provided but a pair of scissors will be useful.
